October 2014 | NSFW

Thank you so much for being a Patron!

Work in progress of Impact Theory page 23. Another flashback scene~ This is what my digital pages look like in their thumbnail stage! I like doing thumbs digitally because I can do pencils directly over them.

Here are my thumbnails for Avialae Ch1: Pages 26-28. Page 26 is already online, but (if you can read my handwriting) here are the next two pages in advance! We learn about ~*~wings~*~

TITLE

October means Inktober! I'm going to be doing an ink drawing every day this month. I'll be posting lowres photos of them on twitter and tumblr, but I'll be scanning them and making them pretty for next month's sketchbook pdf!

A note about the sketchbook portion of this: Again, there is some NSFW content to this. I've made a note where things start to get porn-a-riffic.
