

Here's my process for creating the Ch 4 cover! I usually have a pretty clear idea for the cover composition, but this time I went through a few variations before I settled on one.

Headphone wrap keychains have been pretty popular in Japan and the western con scene for awhile, so I wanted to make some of my own! U make a boy...then u tie him up with ur headphones...nice.

Sketches for the Gannet
headphone wrap keychain!
Trying to get the wings to work with the headphones was a time.

The Avialae doujin that went up last month was SUPPOSED to be valkyrie Gannet/dead knight Bailey, but predictably I made it too long and complicated to fit into my schedule. I already have a few pages started so it'll hopefully come out this winter for $10+ patrons. (I'm required by law to make the next one Halloween themed.)

Same as the last PDF...there are some Big Avialae spoilers in this section, so I've marked them off after the NSFW section.

Also hello Free! is back and is all I care about fandom-wise.

ASAHI, YOUR EARS ARE RED!

SH SHUT UP!

um

I was on a good ol fashioned high fantasy kick for awhile and I made some OCs that I definitely have a story for but refuse to explore them further bc I Do Not Have Free Time Ever.
